

PAT LIVES ON

For all you coffee drinkers (Like Pat):

In the morning
When you smell and cradle that warm cup Raise it in cheers to him
Just for a moment
And smile
- And he lives on.

For all you Michigan alum (Like Patrick):

If you can blow a loud whistle
With your fingers at the corners of your mouth Do it during a game as you cheer them on
- And he lives on.

For all you night owls (Like Patty):

Who enjoy the serenity of the night Please pause in your quiet steps around the house
And embrace his kind and gentle spirit
- And he lives on.

For those of you who feel you're too old to learn something new (Unlike Pat):

Overcome it
Sit down and try
Be inspired by the young
Like he was - learning the guitar
Don't be afraid
- And he lives on.

PAT LIVES ON

For those of you who know about the poetry of lyrics in music (Like Pat):

'Sing the words from deep within
And he is there, too
- And he lives on.'

For those of you who are husbands and fathers:

Be gentle with your wives and daughters (Like Patrick): Stroke their hair and wipe their tears
- And he lives on.

For those of you who know the painful role reversal of caring for your parent (Like Patty):

Be like him
And face it Accepting your parent for who they are at this moment
Protecting their vulnerability
Celebrating that they are still with you Do all this
- And he lives on.

For those of you with siblings who have no children of their own (Like Patrick):

Be generous with yours
Encourage the connection
All hearts can only grow
- And he lives on.

PAT LIVES ON

May those he worked with be like him
A man of peace
In a time of war
Working for our future soldiers
To protect them further
From harm's way
Using science and technology and intelligence
To advance all our futures
Do all this
- And he lives on.

He wasn't technically a soldier
But he did die in the line of duty

For those of you who played ball in the past Dig out your old glove (like Patrick) and slip it onto your hand Hold it close to your nose then take in a deep breath Close your eyes, in the moment and smell the memories of your youth
- And he lives on

PAT LIVES ON

For those of you who have brothers and sisters (like Pat)

Pick up the phone every once in awhile Say hi and share a laugh Share memories and stories you recall from the past Stop by to visit,
lend a hand when they need it
Be free with your hugs Say I love you
— And he lives on

For those of you with little girls in your life (like Patrick)

Know they are gifts from the first time you hold them Bend down on their level to look into their eyes Make time to listen or wipe tears when they cry Hold them close when they need you to be big and strong give them room to fly when that time comes along
— And he lives on

We could go to school there was to eat and dinner in that will suffice but I think we can eat dinner in the morning has been around since 1962.

they eat now dinner now is lunch and what a lunch it is but may be a good lunch and we have a meal and with the little there will be and not eat out if we want to and not have to eat out but we will do our best and eat with a fresh face and have your whole day's night life and eat the eating time - all of which we were left out and eat with full mind in the last and both -

Every time his daughter's smile, PAT lives on.

PLEASE,
Feel free to add to the verse
