

Motor vehicle deaths, injuries, and number of crashes by type of crash, United States, 2022

Type of crash	Deaths	Nonfatal injuries(a)	Fatal crashes	Injury crashes	All crashes
Total	46,027	5,200,000	42,500	3,600,000	12,800,000
Collision with...
Pedestrian	9,200	180,000	6,100	110,000	150,000
Other motor vehicle	19,600	4,060,000	15,700	2,310,000	9,010,000
Angle collision	8,800	1,747,000	7,200	1,497,000	2,930,000
Head-on collision	5,800	363,000	4,300	276,000	400,000
Rear-end collision	3,400	1,523,000	2,800	142,000	3,680,000
Sideswipe and other two-vehicle collisions	1,600	427,000	1,300	396,000	2,000,000
Railroad train	147	0	50	0	3,000
Pedalcycle	1,400	130,000	900	90,000	110,000
Animal, animal-drawn vehicle	100	39,000	100	30,000	670,000
Fixed or other object	12,200	640,000	11,700	600,000	2,610,000
Noncollision	3,400	150,000	3,200	120,000	240,000

Source: Total deaths from the National Center for Health Statistics. All other figures are National Safety Council estimates based on data from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration Fatality Analysis Reporting System and Crash Report Sampling System.

(a) Nonfatal injury is defined as medically consulted injuries, i.e. injuries serious enough that a medical professional was consulted.